

THE HALLMARK

1980

THE HALL SCHOOL

PITTSFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

Next year, The Hall School community will experience a great loss when one of its most valuable members, Mary Cimini, does not return for her twenty-second year in the school. Mary has been with the school since 1959, and has seen it go through many changes. She was here to see the adoption of white dinner uniforms for girls, and faithfully held her post when the first class of boys marched in four years ago. She has been one of the most dedicated employees that The Hall School has ever known, and will remain in our eyes one who truly enjoyed her work and the people with whom she worked.

Mary is leaving, and will indeed be hard to replace, but in the future as different classes come and go, she will be forever remembered by those of us who knew and loved her. To Mary we dedicate the 1980 HALLMARK.

You haven't lived until you take a trip to "Milner Hotel" . . .
 Suddenly, the only "intense" thing in life is "MacDonalds", as long as you sit in the "back booth" . . . Of course, "Berkley" isn't everything, but at least it's got "two beds", and that's o.k., isn't it? . . . If at the end of the "Rainbow" you don't find gold there's always "Sara Lee" . . . Wait "six months" and take the plunge,
 "It'll be better this time" . . . "Jack the Ripper" lives as well as
 "Pee-toed" . . . Meet cha 'round the corner and "bring your

IF

If you can keep your head when all about are losing theirs and blaming it on you.
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, but make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
or being lied about don't deal in lies,
or being hated, don't give way to hating
and yet don't look too good, not talk too wise.
If you can dream and not make dreams your master
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim
If you can meet with triumph and disaster and treat those two imposters just the same,
If you can bear to hear the truths you've spoken twisted by knaves
to make a trap for fools,
or watch the things you gave your life to, broken and stoop, and build 'em up with worn-out tools;
If you can make one heap of all your winnings,
and risk it on the turn of pitch-and-toss
and lose, and start again at your beginnings
and never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew to serve your turn long long long after they are gone and so hold on when there is nothing in you except the will which says to them, "Hold on!"
If you talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
or walk with kings - nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you
If all men count with you but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving moment with sixty seconds worth of distance run
Yours is the earth and everything that's on it, and, which is more - you'll be a man, my son.

SINDI PLENGE

The Poet

When I went down past Charing Cross,
A plain and simple man was I;
I might have been no more than air,
Unseen by any mortal eye.

But, Lord in heaven, had I the power
To show my inward spirit there,
Then what a pack of human hounds
Had hunted me, to strip me bare.

A human pack, ten thousand strong,
All in full cry to bring me down;
All greedy for my magic robe,
All crazy for my burning crown.

I heard the old, old men say,
"Everything alters,
And one by one we drop away."
They had hands like claws, and their knees
Were twisted like the old thorn trees
By the waters.
I heard the old, old men say,
"All that's beautiful drifts away
Like the waters."

Yes, Miracles still occur.

Anonymous

The Lord is my sheperd, I shall not want.
He makes me down to lie
Through pastures green He leadeth me the silent waters by.
With bright knives He releaseth my soul.
He maketh me to hang on hooks in high places.
He converteth me to lamb cutlets,
For lo, He hath great power, and great hunger.
When cometh the day we lowly ones,
Through quiet reflection and great dedication,
Master the art of Karate.
Lo, we shall rise up,
And then we'll make the buggers eyes water.

Mr. Bussey,

We've known you varying lengths of time, varying degrees, varying ways. We have grown, you have grown, the Hall has grown. The growths were good and bad, through happiness, laughter, sorrow, tears. You've sent us to committees, we've defeated you at softball, helped you lose your hair, and still you patiently sent us on our separate ways, reading and re-reading those deadly college essays. Many thanks for all we've shared.
